

How to come to the seminar

"I would like to participate the seminar, but I don't know exactly how to get there."
If you are first time to visit Japan, you might be worry about it.

We are going to guide you to untangle your concern as much as we can.

Access from airport to Shinagawa st.

Shinagawa station is the most closest from the site.

There are many way to get Shinagawa station from the airports, such as trains, buses and taxis. You might be confused.

We recommend to get on the train, because it is simple and not too often to be late.

From Haneda Int'l airport to Shinagawa st.

Take "Keihin Kyuko line" from Haneda Int'l airport to Shinagawa st.

The fee is ¥410, it takes 20mins.

It is close between Haneda airport and Shinagawa st, so the fee is unexpensive.

What's more, you don't need to change the train.

From Narita Int'l airport to Shinagawa st.

We recommend to take "Narita express (the name of limited express train)".

There is special price for foreigner. You can get the ticket at 33% discount.

To get the ticket, please refer this link.

It takes about 70mins from Narita airport to Shinagawa st.

From Shinagawa st. to the seminar

It takes 10min from Shinagawa st. (East Exit) to the seminar by walk.

Firstly, leave the station by the East Exit.

If you come from Haneda airport, pass the gate connecting to JR line, then go straight.

You will find guide board at your front.

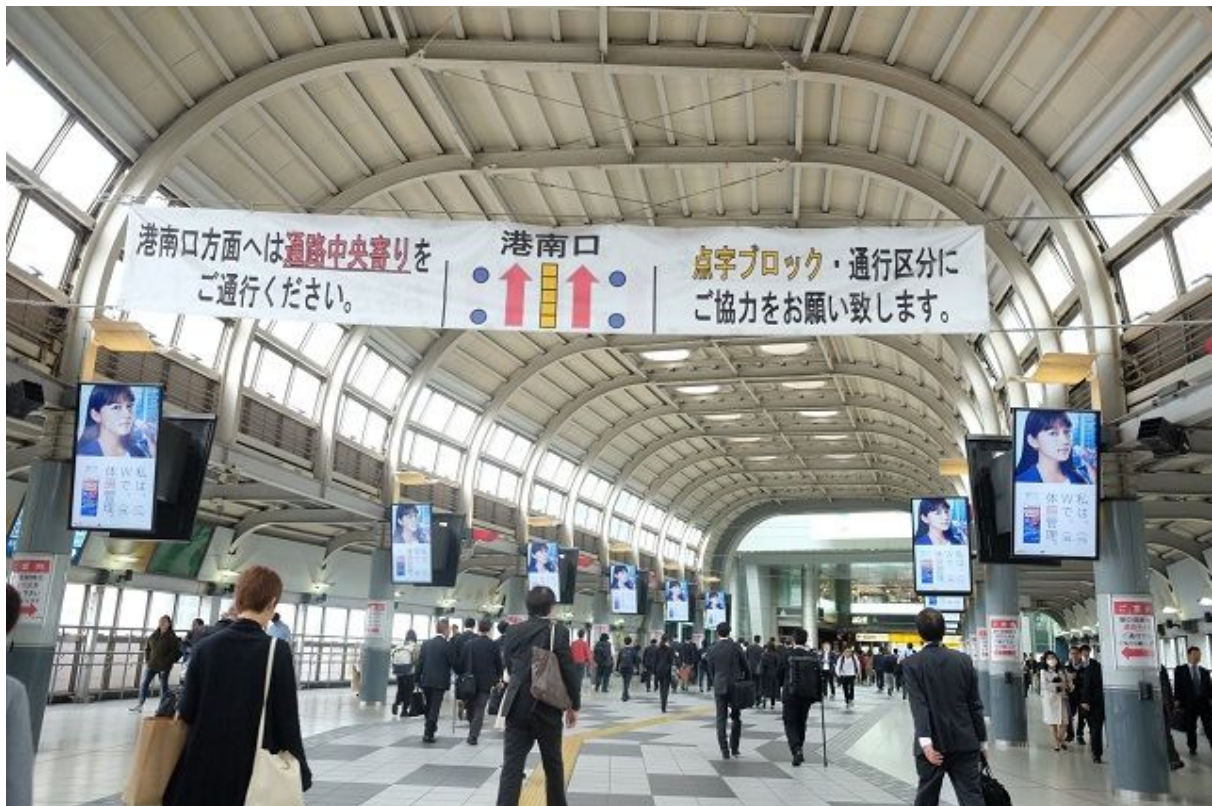

You will see stairs on your right, leading to JR line, so go up to pass East Exit.

If you come from Narita airport, simply pass the gate to go to East Exit.

Follow this guideboard. (港南口 means another name of East exit)

You will see Shinkansen line, but keep going straight.

Then, you will arrive at East Exit.

You can see the square at the bottom of stairs.

Go down to the square.

You will see many buildings.

There is a restaurant district. Follow the arrow in the picture below.

Go pass the restaurant district.

You will find the big building which has the board of "TOYO SUISAN"

Turn right on the main street and head south.

Keep going straight, then you will arrive the intersection "楽水橋(Rakusuihashi)" in 5 min.

The seminar will be open in this building, where is adjacent LAWSON(convenience store which has blue nameboard)
Entrance is indicated by yellow arrow.
